Social Membership

Would you like to become a social member of Glossop Cricket and Bowling Club?

Your annual subscription will entitle you to:

- Discounted drinks in the members bar.
- A reduction on the cost of hiring the club's function room for your family or business events
- The chance to watch the big football games and other sporting events with Sky Sports on the large screen in the function room or in the members bar. During the season the bar is open from early afternoon until 11pm every Saturday and on other match days. Out of season the bar is open on Friday 7:30pm - 11pm. Families are welcome in the members bar.
- Social events throughout the year, in the past we have run Race Nights, Summer Balls, Quiz nights, Sportsman's evening, Halloween night and New Years Eve parties .
- The possibility of buying an annual car-parking ticket for the club car park (for an extra fee). This could be of special interest to those Social Members who commute by train,

The cost of Social Membership is £10 per person. Payment can be made in cash or by cheque (payable to Glossop Cricket and Bowling Club) and posted to David Coates at 48 North Road, Glossop, SK13 7AU or directly to the Cricket Club on North Road, with the completed slip. Membership cards will be distributed early in the new season.

Glossop Cricket Club competes in the Lancashire County League. If you want to see some entertaining cricket this year, why not come down to your see your town team play and enjoy a few drinks whilst you watch the cricket. We would also be really pleased to hear from anyone who thinks they have a skill or who could offer help and support to cricket at the club this season.
